Given To A Human Being Is The Voice. "*
- Dayanand Saraswati

LuciFer's POV :

I have good news and bad news. Which would you like first? If it's bad news, you're in good company - that's what most people pick. But why?

Negative events affect us more than positive ones. We remember them more vividly and they play a larger role in shaping our lives. Farewells, accidents, bad parenting, financial losses and even a random snide comment take up most of our psychic space, leaving little room for compliments or pleasant experiences to help us along life's challenging path.

Hundreds of scientific studies from around the world confirm our negativity bias: while a good day has no lasting effect on the following day, a bad day carries over. We process negative data faster and more thoroughly than positive data, and they affect us longer.

Socially, we invest more in avoiding a bad reputation than in building a good one. Emotionally, we go to greater lengths to avoid a bad mood than to experience a good one.

In our era of political correctness, negative remarks stand out and seem more authentic.

People - even babies as young as six months old - are quick to spot an angry face in a crowd, but slower to pick out a happy one; in fact, no matter how many smiles we see in that crowd, we will always spot the angry face first. The machinery by which we recognise facial emotion, located in a brain region called the amygdala, reflects our nature as a whole: two-thirds of neurons in the amygdala are geared toward bad news, immediately responding and storing it in our long-term memory, points out neuropsychologist Rick Hanson, Senior Fellow of the Greater Good Science Center at University of California, Berkeley.

This is what causes the 'fight or flight' reflex - a survival instinct based on our ability to use memory to quickly assess threats. Good news, by comparison, takes 12 whole seconds to travel from temporary to long-term memory.

What Am I Doing While Thinking About These Things, You Ask?

Well, nothing much. Just chilling in my bedroom. Whenever I feel moody, I just lie down on the bed and play music.

knock knock

I went and opened the door. My mother stood in front me.

" LuciFer! Lunch is Ready. Join Us! " she said.

" Sure. Let me take a bath . " I responded and kept my phone in charging.

I picked up my towel and went to the bathroom. After taking a nice warm shower, I came out and opened my wardrobe to select my clothes. Hmm.

I wore a blue jeans and a black sweatshirt.

Then, I went downstairs and towards the dining table. I saw my dad having his dinner and my mom seem to be waiting for me.

Hearing footsteps, mom turned towards me. " You Finally Came! Have Lunch, It's already past 1pm now. "

" OK " I said and sat down.

My mom prepared a delicious meal as usual.

" Hey Dad ? " I called out to him.

" Hm. What is it LuciFer? " He turned towards me.

" Can you give me some money? " I asked.

" Sure, but why? " He asked.

" Well, there's a friend's birthday party after my shift at work. " I answered.

" Isn't today Sunday? Why do you have to work? " He asked.

" It's our choice dad. We can work today or not for extra money. Since I am free today, I decided to work. " I said.

" So, who's birthday is it LuciFer? " my mom asked.

Agh. I don't wanna say it. Even though she knows, she asks it just to tease me!

" You Already know. Why bother asking me? " I said.

" Oh, it seems that I forgot. What a terrible memory I have, 'teehe~'. " She said and playfully touched her forehead.

You Lier!

" Tell us Son . " My dad joined too.

I sighed.

" It's Laura's Birthday. " I said.

Both my mom and dad has a teasing look on their face.

" Oh, so it's your Girlfriend's birthday huh! " my mom said excitedly.

" Finally, my son is bringing his GF to home! " Dad said with a proud look.

Tch! This is why I don't want to say her.

" How many should I say that She. Is. Not. My. Girlfriend! " I yelled with a slight blush.

My mom was still showing that annoying smile. Aghh!!

My dad's face became serious and he looked me in my eyes.

" Son. Take this. " He said and handed me some money and a gift-wrapped box.

I was confused.

" What's this box dad? " I asked.

" It's nothing. Just a present to Laura from me. Convey my wishes to her. " He said.

" What is that honey? " My mom asked dad and he whispered something to her.

She then looked at me and smiled teasingly.

" What is it? " I asked confused.

" Oh, nothing. It's just something useful. " She said.

Weird, I thought.

We chatted some random stuff and finished our Lunch.

I went to my room and turned on my Computer.

I recently developed a game called 'Crown', which is a brain game. There are so many Puzzles, Riddles, Mystery Solving and Many more in it. It's Difficulty is very high and almost impossible to finish all the levels.

There are also cash prizes included, to make the users play actively.

Based on the number of levels cleared, you get a Rank. Your Rank shows your skill compared to the players all over the world.

Obviously, I got Rank 1.

Well, you can't say that I am cheating. I basically came up with these hard puzzles and I can solve them all. So, I deserve to be at the top.

Just then, I heard a knock on my door.

" Hey son, can we talk for second? " Dad asked.

" Sure . " I said and unlocked the door.

He came in and we sat on sofa, facing each other.

" So..What do you wanna talk about? " I asked.

" Have you ever thought about visiting Japan? " He asked.

" Well, it is a nice country and all. But this came out of nowhere. What happened dad? " I asked.

" My friend is a chairman of a prestigious and unique high school in Japan. When I told him about you while taliking in the phone, he said ' Why not let LuciFer attend my school? ' I thought about it and decided that it will be a good experience for you to study in another country. " He said.

" Unqiue? How is it different from any High School? " I asked.

" He didn't tell me much about it, but just said it will be very interesting for you. " Dad shrugged.

" Well, what's the school name? "

" Advanced Nuturing High School " He said.

I picked up my laptop and googled about the school.

Woah. It's very big.

It says that Students are prohibited to contact someone from outside and are not allowed to leave the school grounds until the end of school years which means 3 years.

" Wow, It also boasts a 100% employment Dad. " I said.

" Yeah . "

" People over there must be smart . "

" So? Do you wanna join the school? " Dad asked.

Hmm.

Visiting Japan is definitely exciting. But If I plan to stay there for some Time, then I need to learn Japanese to make it easy for me there.

Well, I just know few Japanese words due to watching Anime and reading Mangas.

But That isn't enough to live there.

I cant just say 'konnichiwa ' (hello) Or 'Damare Zasshu' (Shut up Mongrel) Whenever someone ask me something.

" I will go to ANHS . " I said.

" Good. Ask Laura whether she wanna come or not . " Dad said.

" Even Laura is coming? "

" She said that she will go to Japan if you are going too. "

" Wow. I am impressed that uncle Reiner allowed Laura to visit another country. " I said.

" Yeah, even I am surprised. "

" I Guess She is no longer a Sheltered Princess now " I joked.

" haha " Dad laughed.

After talking some time with me, Dad went downstairs.

I checked whether there are any bugs in my game and turned off my computer. I Scrolled through my phone until 5pm.

I came out of my house and went to the garage. I turned on my bike's engine and it roared.

I wore a helmet and began riding towards my work place.

Hey Guys, This is My new Fic.

This is My Firs- no second time writing an OC. The first obviously failed due to my poor writing skills.

There are two OCs (main) currently in this Fic.

A male OC and female OC. The ship hasn't been confirmed yet, but we will see that in the future

ENJOY THE CHAPTER....!]

LuciFer's POV :

Let me tell you about Myself.

My name is LuciFer Nava. I am 15 years old. I'm 5'8 ft tall (178cm) and weigh 143 lbs (65kgs).

Not to brag about myself but, I think I have a decent appearance.

By God's Grace, I haven't faced much troubles in my life. I was born into a happy family with a great dad and a caring and loving mother.

I also have a beautiful older sister too.

We are quite wealthy. From my birth, my family didn't face any financial troubles. My dad always gave my sister and I everything we needed.

My sister is quite spoiled and I was too.... Until my 7th birthday.

There was an incident in my life which I can never forget.

To celebrate my Birthday, my father brought us to a dinner in 5-star restaurant. As we are having a delicious meal , there a commotion happening near the entrance.

There was a man and child begging for the food. The guards at the entrance was blocking them and pushing them out, but that didn't stop the man pleading for food.

" Please!! My child is hungry! Give him some food!!! " The man begged.

Both the man and the child were very thin and didn't look very nutritioned. They also have small holes all over their clothes.

The Guests were disturbed by the commotion made by the man. The management brought more security and kicked them out.

Some guests gave pity looks to the man, while the other were relieved as the commotion came down.

I also saw that some people at special booking seats were having a disgusted expression on their face.

At that time I wondered why there were people begging for food and some people having disgusted faces seeing the poor.

The innocent me at that time asked my dad that why was the man and the child are unable to have a dinner in this restaurant..

My dad answered, " Not Everyone can lead a good life, LuciFer. You should be thankful that God gave you a good life. "

Then I realised an important thing.

Without my parents, I too might end like that man. It's due to my parents that I am being happy.

- - - [You, the person reading, is also living a happy life due to your parents. Don't forget that. They are doing their best for you.] - - -

From then on, I began to appreciate every little thing my father did for me. I began to study hard and tried to become a good student.

I aced my academical tests and physical tests. The teachers said that I am too smart to be an ordinary child. My teachers praised me that I am a prodigy.

I have an almost perfect memory and I can remember everything I have ever learned.

To pursue higher knowledge, my dad hired one of best private teachers in the world.

His name is John. He was friendly and caring. His teaching was easy to understand and I have gained more knowledge thanks to him. Like that, he taught me the knowledge of university student when I was just 12.

Few months before my 14th birthday, John suddenly disappeared. He just left a note saying ' Take Care, LuciFer'.

I asked my parents about what happened and why did John leave our house, but they also seem to have no answer.

At my 14th birthday, I got a call from John. He said that he was doing great and that he was sorry for leaving without notice.

My parents and I were relieved that he was fine.

Later when I was 15years old , I began working part-time job at a Restaurant as a waiter. I also tried developing few apps to earn extra cash. Of course, I don't earn much, but it's enough for me.

I bought my phone and laptop with that money, while my Gaming PC was a gift from my dad.

At first, Dad was against me for working, saying that it's too early for a child to worry about his future. But I was stubborn. My mother and sister supported me. My dad eventually gave up. But he didn't plan to leave me like that.

He created a separate bank account and deposited some money every month. I only use that money in case of emergencies or if I don't have money, but I rarely use that account.

This is My Life I am Currently Living...

Laura's Birthday

I arrived at the restaurant and parked my bike and went inside the restaurant.

I forgot to tell you that I work here as a waiter. My cooking skills are just average.

I went to the dressing room and changed into a waiter outfit.

I went out of the room and greeted my friend.

" Hey Nick , how are you doing? "

" Hey LuciFer, I am great. What about you? " He replied.

Nick, Laura, Rose and I are friends, going to the same school.

" I am doing fine. Are you the only one who came today? " I aksed.

" No, Rose is here too. " He said and pointed towards a black-haired girl.

Some people were taking glances at her and blushing. She is quite popular here, you know.

After taking orders from the customers, Rose came towards us. She saw me and greeted me.

" Finally you are here LuciFer! " She said with a smile.

" Hey Rose . "

" Ahh! I rather be the chef than being a waiter. " She complained.

" Well, why don't you be the chef then? " I asked.

" Really ?!"

" Yeah " I smiled at her.

" Thanks !" she said and hit my back lightly.

We talked for some time and eventually got to work.

I went and took orders from the customers. Most of them were Girls and they keep taking glances towards me.

' I wonder why they are looking towards me ' --- Is what every Dense protagonist thinks, but I am not one of them.

I give a small smile towards them and next day, the girls bring more of their friends.

Its very great that just my smile is enough to bring more customers, thanks to them my manager has a good opinion on me.

The manager always says 'The more customers, the more profit I get'. He always have $$ in his eyes whenever he sees me. Am I just a money magnet to him?

Anyways after my shift, we gathered together. Rose and I got in Nick's car and he drove towards the birthday girl's house.

While travelling, we listened to some music to relieve our stress from work.

Rose and Nick kept arguing about which music we should listen to.

" Rose, you have a bad taste in your music. " Nick said while changing the song.

" I don't want to hear that from a guy who listens to just some plain music! "

Rose mocked Nick and changed the music.

" At least, it's better than listening to some shit we can't hear properly! " Nick Complained and changed the music.

" Hey! Don't insult my Music! " Rose glared at John and changed the music.

" I can say the same for you! " Nick said and changed the music.

They kept arguing, until I started getting annoyed.

" If you guys don't Shut Up, I will destroy the music system. " I said in a cold voice.

They gave a defeated look and stopped arguing. Ah, I somehow feel nice in this silence.

But that silence was broken when Rose started talking. I felt slightly annoyed, but I didn't say anything about it. She was just talking, not fighting, so I can't say anything.

Our Journey was quite long. It takes a hour and half to reach Laura's house from our work place.

After reaching Laura's house, Rose and I got off the car while Nick went to gift store as he forgot to buy one.

Laura's Family is quite rich too. Our fathers have known each since they started their own company. They met during a business deal and became friends due to their interests.

As Rose and I entered the house, Uncle Reiner and Aunt Mikasa were standing in front of us.

" Hey LuciFer, How are you doing ?" Uncle Reiner greeted me.

" Hi LuciFer! How are you? Are your parents OK? " Aunt Mikasa greeted me Friendly.

" Yes, I am fine Uncle Reiner. My parents are going great, Aunt Mikasa ."
I said.

Uncle and Aunt greeted Rose and we had some chit-chat.

" So? What is Laura doing when we all are gathered here? " I asked.

" She is still being ready for her birthday . " Aunt Mikasa said.

" Girls always take a lot a time to get ready. I don't think we celebrate her birthday today . " I sighed and said.

" I agree with you LuciFer. If it's like this, we need to start preparing to celebrate her birthday a day before, to celebrate her birthday on time . " Uncle Reiner said while nodding his head.

Both Rose and Aunt Mikasa Glared at Uncle Reiner and Me.

" W-What ? " Uncle asked seeing Aunt's deadly glare.

" Are you saying that you can't even wait for my daughter to get ready ? "

Aunt asked while closing her eyes and smiling.

Scary!

" N-No! It's not like that. By the way, Since when did 'our' daughter became 'your' daughter! ? " Uncle asked.

" Shut your mouth! " Aunt said coldly.

".. Ah...Eh .. " Uncle Reiner Tried saying, but words doesn't seem to come out. He just opened and closed his mouth few times.

Still sensing Rose's glare on me, I turned towards her.

" What ? " I asked while tilting my head slightly.

" Hmpf ! " She looked away from me with slight pink cheeks.

What? Why did she glare at me and just looked away?

Suddenly, my view became dark and I cannot see anything. I felt something smooth touch my eyes.

" Laura, can you remove your hands? " I asked the girl who covered my eyes.

" Nope ~ " She said in a teasing voice.

I sighed. Ever since ' that ' incident happened in our childhood,

Laura and I became close. From then on, she began to tease me, mock me and even laugh with me. She felt like a best friend to me.

" You brought this upon yourself Laura " I warned her before licking her palm with my tongue.

" Eeekk !!" she squealed before removing her hands.

" Sheesh. Did you really need to do that? " Laura said, while wiping her hand.

Infront of me stood a beautiful girl. She is fair skinned, with green eyes, blonde hair and has slim physique.

" Laura " I called out to her. She looked towards me.

" Happy Birthday " I said and gave a friendly hug.

She returned the hug and said

" Thank You LuciFer ."

" Happy Birthday Laura " Rose wished her. Laura went to her and thanked her.

Aunt and Uncle Prepared The Table and Put the Cake on top of it.

We sang the happy birthday song and Laura blew the candles and made her wish. Now, it's time for presents.

Rose gifted Laura a costly and beautiful bracelet.

Aunt and Uncle gifted a MacBook to her.

Eventually, it was my turn.

" Laura, here's the gift which my dad wants to give you " I said and gave the box my dad gave me.

She opened the box and it revealed a rubber thing.

" !!! " Uncle and I widened our eyes.

I immediately grabbed that box and throwed it. It landed exactly in the dustbin. Yea-! Nows not the time for being excited that it landed exactly in the dustbin!!

Why did my dad put a Fucking condom in the box!?

" Tch ! " I clicked my tongue in frustration.

" That idiot won't ever change " Uncle said having a dark look.

I don't know whatever he is thinking, But I am sure that my dad's gonna be in a big trouble.

Laura didn't properly see the contains of the gift. She looked at me with a confused expression.

" Um, LuciFer? Why did you throw that gift? " She asked innocently.

She must be feeling sad that I throwed away her gift. Now I hate my father even more.

" Eto...it's too early for you to know what it is. " I said.

" Hm Hm " Uncle Reiner just Repeatedly nodded his head.

Luckily, Aunt and Rose were in Kitchen preparing our dinner.

If Aunt saw the ' gift ' which my dad gave, I am sure that I Will became a child without a father.

Uncle made a phone call to someone and immediately exited the room. I think that someone is my dad. #RIP dad.

Now, Laura and I are alone in this room. cough I coughed to remove the awkwardness.

" Well, don't you want to see my Gift? " I asked diverting her attention.

" Sure! " She said exactly. Nice! She totally forgot about my dad's gift and is focusing on me.

I gave her my gift, which is a bag.

She unwrapped the gift and saw the gift contains. She took out the gift with her hands.

" Wow. This is beautiful. Are you sure that you chose this one?" She asked while her eyes were fixed on the gift.

It's a Dress for her. I cracked my head a lot, but I didn't get any ideas. In the end, I went and asked Rose for help.

" Well, Rose chose this dress . "
I laughed awkwardly.

" I thought so. You never had a good eye for choosing a girl's gift . " She said.

" I don't want to hear that from someone who gifted me a barbie doll on my birthday . " I said.

We both looked into each other's eyes and giggled.

" Since I know that you will immediately find out that its not my choosing, I bought you a gift which I personally chose . " I said.

" Oh? " She raised her eye in wonder.

" Here, take this. Open it after I went home. " I handed over a box.

" OK " She said, with her curious eyes.

I immediately took that bag out of her hand and holded it behind my back.

" Hey! Why are you taking it again? " Laura asked.

" I am afraid that you will open this bag now, since someone is so Curious like a certain protagonist . " I said.

She just pouted, which looked very cute on her face. I holded my urge to pinch her cheeks.

Everyone gathered and we had a wonderful dinner. We talked about our school and other stuff.

When it became late night, Uncle Reiner and Aunt Mikasa bid goodbye and went into their bedroom.

Rose, Laura and I talked some random things and laughed. After some time, Rose booked a cab and left.

Now It's US alone again. I wonder why god is giving us time alone?

" Hey LuciFer? " Laura called out to me.

" Hm?"

" Thank You. I enjoyed my day thanks to you. " She said while smiling.

" Sure " I said and smiled a little at her.
I also gave her headpats which she like very much.

Later, I booked a cab and went home.
Also, I didn't forget to return my gift to her. As I was going home, I thought to myself.

' I too Enjoyed Today, Laura '

(In Laura's Room)

Laura's POV :

I bid goodbye to LuciFer and went to my room.

I jumped on my bed and stretched my body. What a tiring day.

Though, I enjoyed a lot.

While smiling to myself, I saw the gift which LuciFer gave to me on the table. When did I keep it here--

ting

I got a message from my phone.

[LuciFer : Oh, the gift is on the table in your room. Once again, Happy Birthday Laura]

Hehe... I giggled.

Then, I check the contains of the box. A Nice Blue Ribbon was in it.

That guy!

How does he know that I want a Ribbon?

* For Those Wondering What Happened To Nick *

Somewhere on an empty road

" Damn! Why should my car run out of Fuel now of all times!!? " Nick shouted in frustration
